List of accused Jesuits hits home

Five local priests were named on list

Cameron Knight, Sarah Brookbank and Sheila Vilvens
Cincinnati Enquirer
USA TODAY NETWORK

Editor's note: Officials are asking anyone who has felt victimized by a Jesuit or any St. Xavier employee or knows anyone who has to contact law enforcement and child protective services. The Midwest Province of Jesuits is asking victims to contact Marjorie O'Dea at 773-975-6876. St. Xavier officials are also asking victims to contact the school by email at treilly@stxavier.org or ttyrrell@stxavier.org.

On Monday, the Midwest Province of Jesuits released the names of every priest or clergy member who faced “established allegations” of sexually abusing children back to 1955.

The list includes five local priests who were involved at St. Xavier High School, Xavier University and Jesuit Novitiate in Milford.

The list documented the years and locations of the alleged sex abuse incidents as well as when the priests were dismissed from service or died.

■ Rev. James A. Condon, S.J. at St. Xavier High School in 1965 (deceased 1993)

■ Rev. Mark A. Finan, S.J. at St. Xavier High School from 1964 to 1965 (dismissed in 1973)

■ Rev. Edward J. O'Brien, S.J. at Xavier University in 1958 and 1971 to 1982 (deceased 1983)

■ Rev. Donald O. Nastold, S.J. at St. Francis Xavier Church from 1999 to 2000 (deceased 2007)

■ Rev. Robert J. Erpenbeck, S.J. at the Jesuit Novitiate in Milford from 1961 and the Milford Retreat Center in 1964 (deceased 1986)

Province officials said Condon, Finan, O'Brien and Erpenbeck were all accused of multiple offenses. Nastold was accused of only a single offense.

“The Midwest Jesuits take this step in the spirit of transparency and reconciliation,” said Rev. Brian G. Paulson, S.J. as the list was released Monday. “As we look back at our history, the failures of the Society of Jesus and the Church to protect those entrusted to its care fill our hearts with outrage, sorrow and shame.

“On behalf of the Midwest Jesuits, I apologize to victim-survivors and their families for the harm and suffering you have endured. Many of you have suffered in silence for decades,” he said.

Condon served 15 years at a Jesuit high school in Detroit and worked at The Queen's Work in St. Louis, Missouri before coming to Cincinnati. The province did not report any incidents in Detroit but said there were credible allegations in St. Louis.

In Cincinnati, Condon reached the level of acting president at St. Xavier High School, according to Enquirer archives. He was also the National Director of Catholic Action in the early 1960s and worked with its summer camp.

Erpenbeck died in 1986. Though no incidents were reported at St. Xavier High School in connection with the priest, he served as a counselor there for 10 years prior to his death and lived on campus, according to The Enquirer archives. School officials said he was at the school in 1945 and again from 1975 to 1980.
