(Description of and Rationale for Changes)

EXHIBIT D

The Applicant, Quality One Technologies, Inc., hereby submits its Application relative to use of the trade name, FairPoint Long Distance.

The Applicant is a subsidiary of FairPoint Communications, Inc. ("FairPoint"). FairPoint is a telecommunications holding company that controls telephone operating subsidiaries, including the Applicant, which provide local exchange and interexchange telephone service in 18 states. FairPoint has decided to brand all of its long distance operating companies as "FairPoint Long Distance." Similarly, the Ohio local exchange subsidiaries of FairPoint and affiliates of the Applicant (The Columbus Grove Telephone Company, The Orwell Telephone Company, and The Germantown Independent Telephone Company) filed a Joint Application with the Commission on February 9, 2007 relative to use of the trade name, FairPoint Communications. See Finding and Order issued March 7, 2007 in Case No. 07-140-TP-ACN.

By using a trade name common to other FairPoint subsidiaries, the Applicant will establish that it is a local company with a national presence. Using a common brand will allow for shared advertising, logos, letterheads, billing stock, etc., as well as equipment and technician services. FairPoint also expects that the nationwide branding will increase name recognition.

FairPoint is rolling out its branding efforts on a state-by-state basis. The expected effective date for the Applicant's trade name is April 26, 2007. As of that date, the Applicant expects to begin operating under the same trade name as 16 other FairPoint interexchange carriers across the country: FairPoint Long Distance. All else will remain the same. The use of the new name will not affect the Applicant's rates, terms, or conditions of service. The Applicant's legal name will not change; FairPoint Long Distance has been registered as a trade name.

As previously discussed, FairPoint will also be using a common trade name for its local exchange carriers operating in Ohio and across the country: FairPoint Communications. Attached to those LECs' Joint Application were copies of the notices mailed to customers on March 23, 2007. In addition to providing notice of the LEC's name change, the notice also informed customers that the affiliated long distance company (here, Quality One Technologies, Inc.) will begin marketing its long distance services under the name FairPoint Long Distance. That customer correspondence, which mailed March 23, 2007, provided customers ample notice of the two new names. A copy of the notice is attached to this Application as Exhibit E. All of the Applicant's customers are also customers of The Columbus Grove Telephone Company, and would have therefore received the notice.
