INTERSTATE GAS SUPPLY, INC.'S
NOTICE REGARDING POST-HEARING BRIEFS

Interstate Gas Supply, Inc. ("IGS") was granted intervention in the above-captioned cases by Entry of November 17, 2005. IGS actively participated in the hearings in this proceeding, and in settlement discussions following the completion of hearings. IGS is vitally interested in certain issues in this proceeding, particularly with respect to their impact on the competitive marketplace in the service territory of Columbia Gas of Ohio, Inc. ("Columbia"), both during and following the expiration of the stranded cost management protocol contained in the so-called "2003 Stipulation." The positions of the parties that participated in the hearing is clear on the record, and therefore, rather than adding to the record at this time, IGS hereby provides notice that will not file an initial post-hearing brief, but fully reserves its right to file a post-hearing reply brief in response to any pleading that may be filed by any other party or entity.

Respectfully submitted,

John W. Bentine, Esq. (0016388)
