THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION OF OHIO

In the Matter of the Complaint of Zelma Ragle

Complainant,

V.

Duke Energy Ohio, Inc.,

Respondent.

Case No. 08-55-EL-CSS

ENTRY

The Commission finds:

- (1) On January 17, 2008, Zelma Ragle filed a complaint with the Commission alleging that Duke Energy Ohio, Inc.'s (Duke) rates for electric service were too high.
- (2) On February 6, 2008, Duke filed its answer and motion to dismiss the complaint for failure to state reasonable grounds for complaint.
- (3) The Commission's Service Monitoring and Enforcement Department has contacted the complainant to discuss her concerns. After discussions with staff, complainant advised our staff that she does not wish to pursue her formal complaint. Accordingly, the Commission will dismiss the complaint without prejudice.

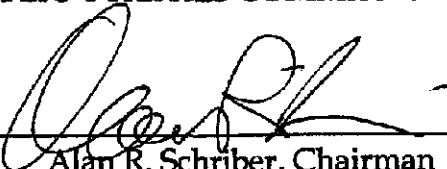

It is, therefore,

ORDERED, That the above-captioned case be dismissed without prejudice and closed of record. It is, further,

This is to certify that the images appearing are an accurate and complete reproduction of a case file document delivered in the regular course of business.
