ENTRY

The Commission finds:

- (1) On July 20, 2007, Daniel A. Filing, Jr., on behalf of the complainant, Hendrickson Trailer Suspension Systems, filed a complaint in this case against the respondent, AT&T Ohio (AT&T). The complaint alleges that, for years, AT&T has provided unsatisfactory service to the complainant at its location in Canton and that AT&T needs to fix the telephone lines leading into the complainant's facility.
- (2) On August 9, 2007, the respondent filed an answer to the complaint. In its answer, AT&T admits that the respondent has been experiencing service problems. Further, AT&T states in its answer that it has identified the specific trouble that the complainant is experiencing and expected to complete the required repair work by the end of September 2007.
- (3) On April 21, 2008, the complainant and the respondent filed a joint request to dismiss this case with prejudice, based on the fact that a settlement of all issues involved in this case has been reached between the parties.
- (4) Due to the fact that the parties have reached a settlement of all issues involved in this case, the parties' joint motion should be granted and, accordingly, this matter should be dismissed with prejudice.

It is, therefore,
