Dear PUCO

PUCO

Re: Allan L. Lewicki v. v. AT&T Ohio
PUCO Case No. 08-235-TP-CSS

Enclosed is a letter I received from AT&T Collections, also enclosed is my response to that letter. I request that these be included as documentation in my case.

I have already requested, but I would like to reiterate, that the next step in the process be commenced (the informal hearing). I realize that the charge I make below will more than likely require my complaint to be culminated with a formal hearing.

I have stated in writing that the major issue of my complaint is not about money. As best as I can describe it, it is about the CRIMINAL MISCONDUCT of AT&T perpetrated in their pattern of unethical billing. I submit the enclosed letter as exhibit A of evidence.

The issues of the money AT&T claims that I owe will be solved in the final disposition of this case.

Respectfully Submitted

Allan Lewicki

Dear AT&T

I am in receipt of your letter dated May 15, 2008 regarding account 440 842-5673 954 6

1. I require ALL communication between AT&T (et alii & et aliae & et alia) and myself be in writing.
2. So as to avoid any "miscommunication" in processing "my claim" supply to me all written material pertaining thereto. The forgoing so as to enlighten me in that I do not recall submitting any claim.
3. Whatever additional information you need, see item 1.
4. Pending the outcome of PUCO Case No. 08-235-TP-CSS I will render to AT&T absolutely nothing.
5. Note the CC in the lower left corner of this letter.

A comment about item 1 above, given that you (Customer Service) have abundantly demonstrated that you are incapable of verbal communication (which is the entire reason that caused me to file a complaint with the PUCO), AND, given a more than adequate demonstration of your refusal to correspond in writing; I am including this letter, along with your May 15th letter as evidence in my PUCO case.

Also; given your past performance, I am not expecting any reply in writing...prove me wrong!
However, anything you send me will be included in my case. Perhaps you will plead (as Jon F. Kelly has already done) that this whole matter is a result of "miscommunication". Very well, than you must be incompetent.

Do you take umbrage of being accused of incompetence? If that is the case than what you have done regarding the actions (or inactions) amounts to CRIMINAL MISCONDUCT!

The foregoing is the major issue in my PUCO case; the payment you claim is incidental.

I will extend to you one item of labor saving information...Jon F. Kelly...(614) 223-7928. It will behoove you to contact this person prior to taking action about this letter
