OHIO EDISON COMPANY'S MOTION TO COMPEL DISCOVERY OR IN THE

Pursuant to Section 4901-1-23 of the Ohio Administrative Code, Respondent, Ohio Edison Company, for the reasons more fully discussed in the attached memorandum in support, respectfully moves this Commission to issue an Order compelling Complainant to participate in the discovery process and, if Complainant fails to comply with said order by July 24, 2008 or some other date deemed appropriate by the Commission, to dismiss the instant action.

On behalf of Ohio Edison Company

MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO COMPEL DISCOVERY

I. BACKGROUND

On or about April 2, 2008, Complainant, Thomas E. Merchant, filed a complaint against Ohio Edison Company ("Company"). Pursuant to Sections 4901-1-19 and 4901-1-20 of the Ohio Administrative Code, the Company, on June 6, 2008, served upon Complainant the Company's first set of interrogatories, request for production of documents and request for access to Complainant's premises. (Exhibit A.) Complainant notified Company counsel that he would not allow access to his premises, resulting in a teleconference on June 20, 2008 with the attorney examiner assigned to this matter. During said teleconference, Complainant objected to the request for access to his premises, but not to any of the interrogatories or requests for production of documents. The attorney examiner ruled that the Company was entitled to access, yet Complainant refuses to comply with the directive.¹ (Exhibit B.) On June 24, 2008, a settlement conference was held in which the parties could not come to an agreement. During said settlement conference, the issue of responses to the Company's discovery was addressed. Complainant assured Company counsel that said responses would be received no later than June 30, 2008. (Exhibit D.) As of July 10, 2008, no responses have been received. On or about July 2, 2008 a notice of deposition was served upon Complainant (Exhibit C.) As a convenience to Complainant, counsel for the Company scheduled the deposition in Youngstown, rather than at the Company's headquarters in Akron, Ohio. As more fully explained on the attached affidavit of counsel (Exhibit D), counsel left no less than four voicemails between July 1, 2008 and July 9, 2008 asking Complainant to confirm that the date, time and location of the deposition was acceptable. Complainant failed to respond to any of counsel's messages. (Exhibit D.) On June 10, 2008, Complainant failed to appear for his deposition without any notice to Company counsel. Company counsel attempted to contact Complainant via counsel's mobile telephone, but the call would not go through. Counsel made the same attempt on several different telephones and the call went to Complainant's voice mail each time.² Id. Again, counsel for the Company left voice mails that were not returned. Id. The deposition was obviously cancelled and this motion to compel ensues.

For the reasons more fully discussed below, the Company asks this Commission to compel Complainant to participate in the discovery process no later than July 24, 2008, or another date deemed appropriate by this Commission, with said Order compelling Complainant to (i) respond to the Company's interrogatories; (ii) submit documents requested for production; (iii) reschedule the deposition on a mutually agreeable date; and (iv) grant Company's counsel access to Complainant's premises on a mutually agreeable date. If such order of the Commission is not adhered to in the time frame set forth by the Commission, the Company asks that the instant action be dismissed pursuant to Section 4901-1-23(F)(4) of the Ohio Administrative Code.

II. ARGUMENT

Section 4901-1-23(A) of the Ohio Administrative Code provides in pertinent part:

(A) Any party, upon reasonable notice ... may move for an order compelling discovery with respect to:

(1) Any failure of a party to answer an interrogatory served under rule 4901-1-19 of the Administrative Code;

² Counsel for the Company had her mobile telephone checked diagnostically with her cell phone provider. No problems were discovered and counsel for the Company has not experienced difficulty with any other telephone number. It appears that Complainant has blocked Company counsel's cell phone number. (Exhibit D.)

(2) Any failure of a party to produce a document or tangible thing or permit entry upon land or other property as requested under rule 4901-1-20 of the Administrative Code;

(3) Any failure of a deponent to appear or to answer a question propounded under rule 4901-1-21 of the Administrative Code;

* * *

As explained above, Complainant has failed to adhere to any of said rules, totally refusing to participate in the discovery process, thereby precluding the Company from properly preparing its defense to Complainant's outrageous claims. Accordingly, a Commission Order compelling Complainant to respond to the Company's interrogatories, produce the documents requested, reschedule the deposition at a mutually convenient time and provide access to Complainant's premises is proper and in accordance with Section 4901-1-23(A) of the Ohio Administrative Code.

In order for the Company to properly prepare for the evidentiary hearing, Company asks that Complainant be ordered to comply with said order no later than July 24, 2008 or such other date as the Commission deems appropriate. If Complainant fails to comply with said Order within the specified timeframe, the Company asks that the instant action be dismissed pursuant to Section 4901-1-23(F)(4) of the Ohio Administrative Code, which provides in pertinent part:

(F) If any party or person disobeys an order of the commission compelling discovery, the commission may:

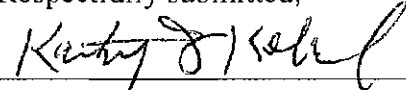

(4) Dismiss the pending proceeding, if such proceeding was initiated by [a] ... complaint filed by the disobedient party, unless such a dismissal would unjustly prejudice any other party.

The complaint was initiated by Complainant, and except for the Company, there are no other parties to this proceeding to be prejudiced by said dismissal. Accordingly dismissal is an appropriate remedy if Complainant fails to abide by the Commission's order.³

III. SUMMARY

In sum, Complainant has ignored a Commission directive to provide access to his premises and has simply refused to abide by the procedural rules surrounding the discovery process. Based on the foregoing, there are sufficient grounds on which to order Complainant to adhere to the discovery rules. And if Complainant fails to so adhere, this matter should be dismissed with prejudice consistent with Section 4901-1-23(F)(4) of the Ohio Administrative Code.

³ The Company currently has pending another motion to dismiss that was filed with the Commission on July 3, 2008, based on Complainant's failure to abide by a Commission directive. The Company submits that the rationale set forth in the memorandum in support of the initial motion to dismiss is sufficient grounds for immediate dismissal without the need to consider these latest antics by Complainant.

Dear Miss See:

As we discussed both sides of the issue regarding the above subject matter, I WILL NOT permit anyone entry into my residence/property located at 808 Brookfield Avenue, SE Masury, OH 44438. Should there be a problem, I will not hesitate to call the police or to file criminal charges for harassment. I stand by my position that this is just another game the company is trying to play. AFFIDAVIT OF COUNSEL

) ss.: SUMMIT COUNTY)

Pursuant to Section 4901-1-23(C)(3) of the Ohio Administrative Code, I, Kathy J. Kolich, being duly sworn, depose and say that the following statements contained herein are true as I verily believe:

1. I am a senior attorney employed by FirstEnergy Service Company.
2. As part of my duties, I represent FirstEnergy's public utilities before the Ohio and Pennsylvania public utility commissions. I am currently representing Ohio Edison Company (hereinafter, "Company") in the Complaint Case of Merchant v. Ohio Edison Company, (PUCO Case No. 08-428-EL-CSS) before the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio.
3. On June 6, 2008, I served upon Complainant via first class U.S. mail the Company's First Set of Interrogatories, Request for Production of Documents, and Request for Access to Complainant's Premises. (Exhibit A to the Memorandum in Support of Motion to Compel Discovery.) I also sent these same discovery requests via email, along with the applicable sections of the Ohio Administrative Code governing such discovery requests. (Exhibit 1 to this Affidavit.)

4. On or about June 16, 2008, Complainant called me and informed me that he would not provide access to his premises. While he inquired about several interrogatories, he did not object to any of the interrogatories or requests for production of documents.
5. Complainant and I arranged a teleconference with the Attorney Examiner assigned to this matter (Greta See) that was held on June 20, 2008. Again Complainant only objected to the request for access to his premises but not to any of the Company's other discovery requests. After listening to both parties' arguments, Attorney Examiner See ruled that the Company was entitled to access to Complainant's premises. Complainant never filed an interlocutory appeal. Instead I received the email included as Exhibit B to the Memorandum in Support of the Motion to Compel in which Complainant informed Ms. See that he would not adhere to her finding. Given the contents of said email, I have not made any further attempts to gain access to Complainant's premises.
6. On June 25, 2008, the parties met via teleconference for a settlement conference with Attorney Examiner Bojko. During said meeting, I inquired of Complainant as to when I could expect his responses to the Company's interrogatories and request for production of documents that were due on June 26, 2008. He assured me that I would have them no later than June 30, 2008.

7. I called Complainant on June 30, July 1 and July 2, leaving voice messages in which I inquired as to the whereabouts of the discovery responses.

Complainant did not return any of my calls. As of this date (July 10, 2008) such responses have yet to arrive.

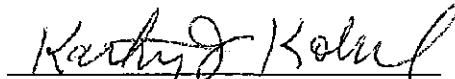

8. On July 1, 2008, I mailed to Complainant via first class mail, a notice of deposition (Exhibit C to the memorandum in support of motion to compel). The deposition was scheduled for July 10, 2008 at 10:30 at Ohio Edison Company's service center in Youngstown, Ohio. On that same date I also called Complainant and left him a message informing him that said notice was coming, that he should call me to confirm his availability and to let me know if the time, date or location was inconvenient. I made no less than four calls between July 1, 2008 and July 9, 2008, leaving a message with the same request. None of these calls were returned by Complainant.
9. On July 10, 2008, I appeared at Ohio Edison's Service Center ready to take the deposition of Complainant that was scheduled at 10:30AM. As of 11:00, Complainant had failed to appear and I attempted to call Complainant on my cell phone. I got a prerecorded message that the call could not be completed as dialed and that I should check the number. I did and repeated the process, receiving the same message.
10. I contacted my cell phone carrier and asked them to try the number. They did and the technician indicated that it rang a long time and then rolled to voice mail. I asked the carrier to run a diagnostic on my telephone. There was no indication of a problem with my service or my cell phone. Further, I made several other calls from this cell phone that went through without any similar message or problem.

11. I then attempted to call Complainant's number on a telephone located in the conference room in which the deposition was to take place. This call went through without receiving any error message, rolling to Complainant's voice mail. I left him a message asking him if he had planned to attend the deposition and instructed him to call me. I also tried to reach Complainant on several telephones other than my cell phone and all such calls rolled to voice mail. As of the filing of this affidavit, Complainant has not returned my calls.

12. While I cannot be sure, given that every telephone that I tried other than my cell phone can get through at least to Complainant's voice mail, and the diagnostic test did not detect a technical problem with my telephone or cellular service, it appears that Complainant has blocked my number from being received when his number is called from my cell phone.

FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH NAUGHT.
