Public Convenience and Necessity to ) Case No. 08-766-TP-ACE Provide Local Exchange Service within the ) State of Ohio. )

ENTRY

The attorney examiner finds:

- (1) On June 25, 2008, the applicant, Cox Ohio Telecom, L.L.C. (Cox) filed an application in this case seeking a certificate of public convenience and necessity to provide local exchange service in the Ohio telephone exchanges identified in the application.
- (2) Along with the application, counsel for the applicant filed a motion for protective order by which the applicant seeks to protect the confidentiality of the financial information set forth in Exhibit 8 to its certification application, which has been marked confidential and filed under seal. The information for which protective treatment is sought consists of the applicant's income statements and balance sheets covering the periods from January 1, 2006, through April 30, 2008.
- (3) The applicant is privately held, rather than a publicly traded company. In its motion for a protective order, the applicant indicates that the involved financial information is not otherwise available to the applicant's competitors. Further, the applicant submits that disclosure of this information could be competitively damaging to the applicant.
- (4) Under certain limited circumstances, the Commission has been willing to grant motions of telephone companies who seek to protect the confidentiality of the financial information they are required to submit as part of their certification applications. To date, such protection has been granted for periods of up to 18 months, where the company seeking the protective order can show that:

This is to certify that the images appearing are an accurate and complete reproduction of a case file document delivered in the regular course of business.
Technician Tm Date Processed 7/24/2008

- (a) It is privately held, or is a company that as a wholly owned subsidiary of a publicly traded company, does not routinely publicly report its financial status.
  - (b) The information for which protective status is sought represents recent historical, contemporaneous, or projected details about the operations and/or finances of the company seeking the protective order that are competitively sensitive and have never previously been made available to the general public or filed with any other public agency.
- (5) Each of the above criteria has been met in this case with respect to Exhibit 8 of Cox's certification application in this case. Accordingly, Cox's motion for protective order should be granted, such that, unless and until specifically ordered otherwise, public disclosure of Exhibit 8 to Cox's certification application shall occur for the first time on October 23, 2009, i.e., the date 18 months from the date of the issuance of this protective order. In the event that Cox should desire to seek continued protective treatment for this information beyond this 18-month period, it must make application for such continued protection in compliance with Rule 4901-1-24(F), Ohio Administrative Code (O.A.C.).

It is, therefore,

ORDERED, That Cox's motion for protective order filed by Cox in this case is granted. Accordingly, unless and until specifically ordered otherwise, public disclosure of the Exhibit 8 to Cox's certification application shall occur for the first time on October 23, 2009, i.e., the date 18 months from the date of the issuance of this protective order. In the event that Cox should desire to seek continued protective treatment for this information beyond this 18-month period, it must make application for such continued protection in compliance with Rule 4901-1-24(F), O.A.C. It is, further,

ORDERED, That this entry shall not be binding upon the Commission in any subsequent investigation or proceeding involving the justness or reasonableness of any rate, charge, rule, or regulation. It is, further,

ORDERED, That a copy of this finding and order be served upon Cox, and all interested persons of record.
