COMMENT DESCRIPTION:

NO to AEP's rate increase request. 45% is totally off the chart. I'm sure that the utility has the ability to lock in contracted prices for fuel prices ex. (southwest airlines) please do not let the ohio consumer fall victim to yet another bloated (and or) mis-managed entity. I can not possibly absorb a rate increase of 45% and still be able to maintain some sort of normal existence. I am already shopping on-sale food items only, moved closer to my work to reduce fuel expense and have totally cut out all forms of entertainment except television. thank you for time Tom Williams tom dw96@hotmail.com
