A COMMUNITY FUNDING INITIATIVE THAT MAKES QUALITY EARLY LEARNING PROGRAMS AVAILABLE TO MORE CHILDREN IN FRANKLIN COUNTY

RECEIVED

To Whom It May Concern:

AEP is a responsible, conscientious community partner to many organizations including Champion of Children. Champion of Children is a community funding initiative that makes quality early learning programs available to children in lower income working families throughout Franklin County so that more children start school ready to learn and have the opportunity for school success.

Children from birth through age 5, whose families fall in the gap between those receiving public child care assistance and those who are economically self-sufficient, can currently choose among 30 nationally accredited early learning centers in Franklin County that participate in Champion of Children. The sliding scale funding model used by Champion Children parallels the economic need of families and is an effective funding strategy for delivery of quality early learning in our county.

In addition to being a supporter of Champion of Children since 2000, AEP has demonstrated their commitment to early education by developing and offering excellent teacher education seminars in science for young children. In a demonstration of great awareness and forethought, they also provide teachers with all of the materials needed to implement the curriculum.

I wish to express our gratitude to AEP for their community support and corporate caring and responsibility.

Sincerely,

Peggy Fein

Champion of Children
