COMMENT DESCRIPTION:

Why on earth would you allow these utility companies to increase the already too high cost to consumers? We are all struggling just to survive, especially those of us on fixed incomes. Gas and oil prices have been steadily decreasing, not increasing. Instead of paying dividends to people who can afford to buy stock, they can use that for their expenses. Why punish the poor who cannot afford it? Your decision hurts all of us and rewards the utility companies for their bad judgment and allows them to continue paying too high executive salaries.
