MOTION OF THE STAFF OF THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION OF OHIO FOR AN EXTENSION OF TIME FOR FILING ITS TESTIMONY

The Staff of the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio moves for a four day extension of the time for filing its testimony. The Staff must file its testimony by the end of the day on March 26, 2009 currently. Through this motion, Staff seeks an extension of that time to file its testimony until the end of the day on March 30, 2009. Staff makes this motion to free more time to devote to a potential settlement of this case.

Staff also moves for an immediate ruling on this motion without the filing of memoranda because of: the immediacy of the deadline for filing Staff testimony; the short, four day, extension requested; and the lack of prejudice

MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT

Staff moves for a short, four day, extension of the time to file its testimony. The extension is short and it will not delay the hearing. Staff's testimony will be filed before the hearing commences and well before Staff presents witnesses. Staff, typically, presents its case last. The Ohio Cable Telecommunications Association represented at the pre-hearing that it could not present its witnesses before the middle of April because of scheduling difficulties. For that reason alone, weeks will pass between the time Staff files its testimony and the presentation of Staff witnesses if this case does not settle. Accordingly, the parties have weeks to review Staff's testimony and prepare to cross-examine Staff witnesses if the extension is granted. For that reason, the extension will not delay or prejudice the presentation of any parties' case or cross-examination of Staff's witnesses. In short, the extension will not delay the hearing or prejudice any party.

The extension may result in the benefits associated with settlement. While no one can predict the future with total accuracy, this extension improves the likelihood of settlement. It allows Staff more time to devote to a potential settlement; a settlement that would provide a reasonable and beneficial result to this case without the time and expense of a hearing. Accordingly, Staff's motion, if granted, may result in benefits in this case without any detriments. For this reason, the motion should be granted.

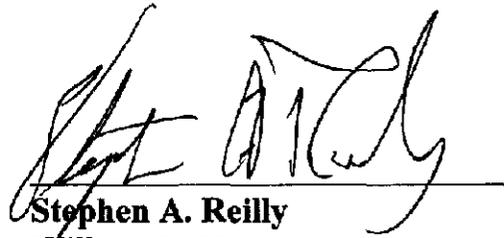

The Commission's rules allow this motion to be granted immediately. Ohio Administrative Code Section 4901-1-12 (C) allows "an immediate ruling ... without the filing of memoranda" where, as here, "the motion requests an extension of time to file ... papers [such as written direct testimony] of five days or less." Ohio Admin. Code 4901-1-12 (C). Staff seeks a four day extension only. Under this rule, an immediate ruling may issue without further memorandum. Such a ruling should be issued because of the immediacy of the deadline for filing Staff's testimony.

For the foregoing reasons, Staff requests its motion be granted immediately.

Respectfully submitted,

Richard Cordray
