In the Matter of the Application of ) Columbia Gas of Ohio, Inc., for Approval ) of a General Exemption of Certain Natural ) Case No. 08-1344-GA-EXM Gas Commodity Sales Services or Ancillary ) Services. )

ENTRY

The attorney examiner finds:

- (1) On January 30, 2009, Columbia Gas of Ohio, Inc. (Columbia), filed an application pursuant to Section 4929.04, Revised Code, for approval of a general exemption of certain natural gas commodity sales services or ancillary services contained in Chapters 4905, 4909, and 4935, Revised Code. In addition, Columbia requests approval of a proposed rider pursuant to Section 4929.11, Revised Code.
- (2) By entry issued May 8, 2009, the attorney examiner, inter alia, established June 5, 2009, as the deadline for intervention in this case.
- (3) By entry issued June 9, 2009, the examiner, inter alia, granted the motions to intervene in this matter filed by various entities. Furthermore, the examiner noted that, between June 2, 2009, and June 5, 2009, other entities had filed motions for admission pro hac vice and motions to intervene, and the examiner stated that she would wait until the requisite time period has passed before considering the motions filed after June 2, 2009.
- (4) On June 5, 2009, motions were filed to admit David M. Perlman and Craig G. Goodman pro hac vice to practice before the Commission in this proceeding. The attorney examiner finds that the motions for admission pro hac vice should be granted.
- (5) Between June 2, and June 5, 2009, motions to intervene in this case were filed by DTE Energy Trading, Inc. (DTE), NJR Energy Services Company (NJRES), Constellation NewEnergy-Gas Division, LLC (CNEG), the National Energy Marketers Association and Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. (NEM and Wal-Mart), Exelon Energy Company (Exelon), Sempra Energy Trading, LLC (Semptra), and J.P. Morgan Ventures Energy Corporation (J.P. Morgan). In addition, on June 9, 2009, the Northwest Ohio Aggregation Coalition (NOAC) filed a motion to intervene in this case and on June 22, 2009, NOAC filed a request that its motion to intervene be accepted as timely filed stating that its motion to intervene was inadvertently filed past the June 5, 2009, filing deadline. In their motions to intervene, the movants submit that they meet the standards for intervention pursuant to Section 4903.221, Revised Code, and Rule 4901-1-11, Ohio Administrative Code. No one filed in opposition to these motions to intervene. The attorney examiner finds that the motions to intervene filed by DTE, NJRES, CNEG, NEM and Wal-Mart, Exelon, Semptra, J.P. Morgan, and NOAC, are reasonable and should be granted.

It is, therefore,

ORDERED, That the motions for admission pro hac vice to admit David M. Perlman and Craig G. Goodman be granted. It is, further,

ORDERED, That the motions to intervene filed by DTE, NJRES, CNEG, NEM and Wal-Mart, Exelon, Semptra, J.P. Morgan, and NOAC be granted. It is, further, ORDERED, That a copy of this entry be served upon all parties of record.
