Re: Case No. 09-951-EL-EEC, 09-952-EL-EEC, 09-953-EL-EEC

Dear Ms. Jenkins:

This letter states the support of Citizen Power for the Reply to FirstEnergy's Memorandum Contra Motion for Hearing by The Office of the Ohio Consumers' Counsel, The Ohio Environmental Council, and The Natural Resources Defense Council submitted on December 14, 2009 in this docket.

Citizen Power believes that hearings are necessary in order to determine an accurate accounting of the reduction in line losses claimed by Ohio Edison Company, The Cleveland Electric Illuminating Company and The Toledo Edison Company in relation to the transmission and distribution projects listed in their Application submitted on October 14, 2009 for inclusion as part of their energy efficiency compliance with the energy efficiency reductions as required in R.C. 4928.66(A)(1)(a) for 2009 and thereafter. In our opinion, the documentation provided in the application is insufficient to verify net line-loss reductions.

Respectfully Submitted,

Theodore S. Robinson, Esquire
