Space says, "The bottom line is, we have a crisis in health care," and he defines it as a moral and economic crisis. This is propaganda, and the goals of this bill are not directed at any real concern for our health. It is about control.

They have bankrupted Medicare and veterans care. How could it be a good idea to let them take it all over? There is no current crisis in health care except the one congress is creating.

Space admitted that he does not allow our feelings to influence his votes. If we are not influencing him, then who is? So far he has only represented the people who give him the most money (Nancy Pelosi) rather than his constituents.

Space said, "This bill, while not perfect, moves the ball down the field." He feels this bill does not go far enough in expanding government, increasing taxes, taking away our choices, and establishing euthana-
