Docketing Case No.: 10-0176-EL-ATA

Notes: purchased my all electric home in 1980. I would have preferred to have had both gas and electric, but I chose an all electric home because of the discount FOR LIFE offered by First Energy with the stipulation that I would not have any other utility, such as natural gas, supplied to my home. I purchased the home with the understanding that this discount would make one electric bill compareable to a home with both a gas bill and electric bill with a new heat pump bill every 10 to 15 years. Since I have not died, I believe that this discount should be honored by First Energy. To add insult to injury I was never notified personally by PUCO or First Energy.
