Docketing Case No.: 10-0176-EL-ATA

Notes: First Energy reneged on their contract to supply electricity at the all-electric discounted rate for the duration of our home ownership. My rate went from 1.9c/kwh in Feb of 2009 to 5.12c/kwh in Feb of 2010. That is 250%! I am on the Equal Payment Plan and do not read each bill line by line, so I did not notice that this discount was illegally removed on the June 2009 bill. The only notice I received was that when we sell, the new owner would not receive the discount; we would be Grandfathered in for the duration of our ownership and our rate would not change. Please correct this error by First Energy.
