Docketing Case No.: 10-0176-EL-ATA

Notes: Our first electric bill at our new house was in January 2008. There was no "all electric" discount applied. We were told that the rate is no longer in effect for new customers. In recent news the discount went back into effect for those grandfathered in. First Energy like all businesses has to make a profit. Why are my electric costs for my all electric home subsidizing a discounted rate for others with an all electric home?
