Docketing Case No.:10-176-EL-ATA

Notes:

On Wednesday, March 3, 2010, the PUCO issued an emergency order giving First Energy until March 17 to file new tariffs to temporarily reinstate the all-electric rates that were in effect in December 2008. First Energy did not actually reinstate the previous all-electric rates on March 17, but rather temporarily lowered bills by issuing a Residential Generation Credit (RGC) during the winter months

You are sitting on your hands with this case. First Energy did not reinstate the rate, a $50 credit what a joke. And what about refunding the money that was already paid to the pirates. Do something PUCO, earn the money that us taxpayers are paying you with. You created this mess now fix it.

Please docket the attached in the case number above.
