Docketing Case No.: 10-0176-EL-ATA

Notes: The promises made to me at the time of purchase of the home have been breached. These promises led me to go ahead with the all electric. I do not have a remedy at this point. It seems that as a country we have gone on a path where promises and words mean nothing anymore. It is only those in power and influence that are not required to uphold theirs. As a result, my home has become unsellable.
