Docketing Case No.: 10-0176-EL-ATA

Notes: Regarding Case #10-176-EL-ATA. I have not received a response regarding the permanent reinstatement of the all-electric discount. First Energy should not be allowed to raise rates of other customers to compensate for the discount they had offered the all-electric homes. I believe they should be made to honor all discounts offered to consumers and refund the overcharges. If First Energy was not going to follow through on the discounts offered they should not have offered them in order to entice homeowners into using all-electric. Also, these discounts need to be connected to the home as homes are hard enough to sell in this current market without a $400-$600 per month winter electric bill. Thank You.
