Docketing Case No.: 10-0176-EL-ATA

Notes: Our all electric house has always had a reasonable bill every month. This past winter our bill doubled in price. As new parents, we kept it at a reasonable temperature and didn't realize what this would mean. It is stressful having such a high bill come your way and after calling three times nothing was resolved except to "wait and see" what the next bill brought. We are currently trying to sell out house and having an all electric house with the way prices are is proving as a hinderance. I believe something needs to change.
