Dear Sirs:

I am writing to you today to find out the status of the PUCO report on the All-Electric issue. When will the PUCO have a permanent solution recommendation and will it be prior to September 30? Can you please tell me when and where the public hearings will be on the All-Electric issue? I would also like to suggest that the PUCO consider the broken promises and builder enticements FirstEnergy made when deciding on the permanent solution and who will pay for the discount. Please consider and use the broken promises as evidence to make FirstEnergy pay part or (hopefully) all of the discount.

It is my understanding that this is a simple rate design issue and simple to fix, with the only issue being who pays for the all-electric discount. I am asking that FirstEnergy keep their word to the All-Electric homeowners and that a fair and equitable resolution be found. No one is against companies making profits FAIR profits, but only as long as honest practices and fair business policies are being followed. I am counting on your support and good judgment in handling this situation. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely, Jeannie Burnett
