COMMENT DESCRIPTION:

In reference to Case # 10-176. I plan to attend Lakeland College hearing and I hope to understand as to why this topic is still under consideration when so many people including my family are struggling. As a govt agency it is your absolute job to protect consumers from any abusive practices from the utility companies. How can millions in profits be allowed without any regulations when all electric foreclosures are on the rise and thousands of families must choose between food and heating. It is PUCO's responsibility to rule in favor of permanently reinstating the AE Discount and prevent abuse and artificial unfair rate increases.
