COMMENT DESCRIPTION:

It is imperative that the all electric discount be reinstated on a permanent basis. I could not get a gas connection when I built this house in 1977 due to a "natural gas shortage" manufactured by the gas companies, so I had to build an all electric house. I was led to believe that the all electric discount I received would be permanent. I am trying to sell my house and the loss of this discount would make it significantly more difficult to sell my house. Gerald M. Yosowitz, MD
