To Whom It May Concern,

We are against the new regulations for commercial trucks rated at 10,001 to 26,000 lbs. We just learned of this change and we do not have adequate time to prepare before enforcement that begins on January 1, 2011. We value safety but these rules are excessive. They are detrimental to our ability to run and grow our business, especially in these difficult economic times.

Sincerely,

Brian R. Copley CLP
Office Manager
