DEAR SIRs,

I am a small landscape contractor in Novelty, Ohio. I am very opposed to the new regulations for commercial trucks rated at 10,000 to 26,000 lbs. I have only recently learned of this changed and do not have adequate time to prepare before enforcement begins in January.

I feel that safety is a high priority for me in my business, but these new regulations are excessive. They will make things much more difficult in economic times that are already making it hard to remain in business.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

James Marx (jmm)
