Compliance to New PUCO Rules for 10,001 lbs to 26,000 lbs.

Dear Sir,

We have just found out about the change in the rules for our trucks and drivers. After a all day meeting on compliance it is very difficult to get all these rules in place by Jan. 1, 2011. We are a small business with 3 trucks and 4 men. I think the rules are excessive and will put a lot of people out of work. The amount of paper work involved will be difficult to keep up with. I know that safety is the reason for this regulation but I think a lot of communities are looking at this as a "Cash Cow". If nothing else, we need more time than a month to get organized.

Sincerely,

Thomas J. Malak
