To Whom It May Concern:

Goecke Enterprises, Inc. is against the new regulations for commercial trucks rated 10,001 to 26,000 lbs. Our company has just learned of the change and does not have enough time to make the changes before you begin enforcement on January 1, 2011. Goecke Enterprises believes that safety comes first, but these rules are excessive. In these difficult economic times, it is our belief that the new rules will be detrimental to our business's ability to run and grow.

Sincerely,
Christopher G. Goecke
General Manager
Goecke Enterprises, Inc.
