COMPLAINT DESCRIPTION:

Re: Case # 10-176 The fact that the PUCO took 5 months to give a ruling on the OCC's complaint in case # 10-176, while only taking 4 hours to rule on FE's motion clearly gives us the impression of a double standard. It would appear that there exists an all too cozy "fox guarding the hen house" relationship between the organization which is supposedly protecting consumer interests (hard to tell, but I'm referring to PUCO) and the racketeers at FE.

Your actions speak louder than words, but nevertheless I appeal to whatever semblance of fairness you may have to start making the people for whom you work your number one priority. In other words, STOP your back room dealings with FE and START protecting the citizens they are extorting.
