American Electric Power

Dear Examiner Phillips-Gary,

This letter is in reference to the procedural schedule calling for testimony to be filed today and a hearing to be held next week, July 28, 2011, in these cases.

I last spoke to counsel for the Complainant on July 8, 2011. He (Mr. Leithart) indicated that he would be on vacation and we did not finalize the agreement of facts. I called Mr. Leithart's office today and confirmed he is still on vacation.

While the Companies could allow the time to pass and move to dismiss for failure to prosecute because the Complainant did not file testimony, I believe that we are close to an agreement on the facts and pursuant to the conversation I last had with Mr. Leithart, I believe he is expecting that the procedural schedule will be modified.

I also spoke with Ken Goldberg from Mr. Leithart's law firm and explained I would be filing this letter and he indicated his agreement with the approach to allow Mr. Leithart to return to town. I will update the Commission as soon as I hear from Mr. Leithart.

Cordially,

ss//Matthew J. Satterwhite//
