Chairman Todd A. Snitchler:

I am writing from the City of Kenton. Recently our citizens voted to approve a governmental aggregation program for electric and gas. We are eagerly awaiting the start of our program, however we are concerned that AEP's Electric Security Plan could effect our implementation. With the recent state budget cuts, we were planning to benefit from the program savings for our own electricity costs in the year 2012.

We are asking for governmental aggregation communities be exempt from the caps of the AEP plan.
