Effective January 1, 2012, E Source is no longer acting as a broker or aggregator. At no time did E Source ever directly supply or take title to, electricity or natural gas in your jurisdiction.

Some of the contracts we negotiated on behalf of commercial customers remain in effect and E Source will continue to receive compensation for this work until these contracts expire.

I am writing to inform you of these two facts and inquire if we have any further reporting requirements in your jurisdiction. Your prompt response is appreciated.

Best Regards,
