ENTRY

The attorney examiner finds:

- (1) The Dayton Power and Light Company (DP&L) is a public utility as defined in Section 4905.02, Revised Code, and, as such, is subject to the jurisdiction of this Commission.
- (2) On March 30, 2012, DP&L filed an application for a standard service offer (SSO) pursuant to Section 4928.141, Revised Code. This application is for a market rate offer in accordance with Section 4928.142, Revised Code. Additionally, DP&L filed accompanying applications for approval of revised tariffs, for approval of certain accounting authority, for waiver of certain Commission rules, and to establish tariff riders.

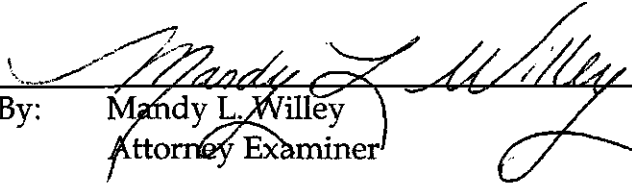

- (3) By entry issued April 2, 2012, the Commission established a procedural schedule for this proceeding.
- (4) Subsequently, on April 13, 2012, Ohio Energy Group, Staff, FirstEnergy Solutions Corp., Duke Energy Retail Sales, L.L.C., Duke Energy Commercial Asset Management, Inc., the Ohio Hospitals Association, and Honda of America Mfg, Inc. (collectively, Joint Movants), filed a joint motion seeking to extend portions of the procedural schedule. By entry issued April 18, 2012, the attorney examiner granted Joint Movants' motion and extended portions of the procedural schedule, requiring intervenor testimony to be filed by June 13, 2012, and providing that the evidentiary hearing should commence on June 25, 2012.
- (5) Thereafter, on June 5, 2012, DP&L filed a motion for a continuance of the deadline for intervenor testimony and the scheduled evidentiary hearing date of June 25, 2012. In its memorandum in support, DP&L states that the parties have had insufficient time to complete settlement discussions due to the large number of parties, complexity of the cases, and the schedules of the parties due to other hearings presently before the Commission. Additionally, DP&L states that it requires more time to review the issues in these cases. Finally, DP&L states that it waives the 90-day limit for Commission action on its first application for a market rate offer under Section 4928.142(B)(3), Revised Code.
- (6) The attorney examiner finds that the date previously scheduled for commencement of the evidentiary hearing shall be utilized as a call and continue. Additionally, the previously established procedural schedule, including the deadline for intervenor testimony, shall be suspended and will be revised at the call and continue on June 25, 2012.

It is, therefore,

ORDERED, That the procedural schedule be revised as set forth in Finding (6).
It is, further,

ORDERED, That a copy of this Entry be served upon all parties of record.
