Dear P.U.C.O.

The purpose of this letter is to formally disagree with the "Motion to Dismiss" submitted by the attorney for Cincinnati Bell Telephone. I have not yet received an "entry", so I apologize if my response is premature. In case the 20 day deadline to submit my statement of disagreement is upon receipt of a copy of the motion rather than upon receipt of the "entry", I didn't want to wait and thereby miss my opportunity. Please do not dismiss the case.

Also, please consider Fridays as potential meeting days for any future steps in the process (assuming that would work for CBT's representative). My profession is devoted to patient care, and I would like to minimize any needed adjustments to treatment schedules. Fridays after 11:00 a.m. are usually spent on paperwork and are therefore the least disruptive times. Though I am pursuing this process in the interests of both myself and the general consumer public, I remain most concerned about the interests of my patients. Therefore, if Fridays are convenient for P.U.C.O. and CBT as well, I would appreciate meetings scheduled on those days. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Terry Sky Glendening
