Re: Bryan Longbottom

QUESTION DESCRIPTION:

Just wondering when the last time puco didn't approve something from aep?
Seems like puco rubber stamps any request from aep without considering the consumer in any way or shape. This is why your appointments should be voted upon so when consumers are tired of paying for your aep kickbacks we could vote you all out. Its pathetic how little regulation you actually do. It'd be nice to get rid of this waste of taxpayer money given that none of you actually do your job
