LIFELINE

B. LIFELINE RECOVERY SURCHARGE

1. General

Incumbent Local Exchange Carriers (ILECs), in accordance with Section 4927.13 (D) of the Revised Code, may recover from end users any Lifeline service discounts that are not recovered through state or federal funding or whose recovery is prohibited by law. In accordance with 4901:1-6-19 (P) O.A.C., ILECs may recover these discounts through a customer billing surcharge on retail customers, excluding those with Lifeline service.

The Company's Lifeline Recovery Surcharge is calculated to recover the difference between the Company's Lifeline prices and the Company's standard retail service prices, minus any portion of the price differences that are recovered through federal or state funding. The Company will update this calculation at least once per year in accordance with 4901:1-6-19 (R) O.A.C.

The Lifeline Recovery Surcharge is imposed on each residence, nonresidence, and payphone access line, other than Lifeline service. For purposes of application of this surcharge, access lines are defined as facilities, which provide access to and from the telecommunications network for toll service and for local calling. Not included in this definition are remote call forwarding and Cincinnati Bell official accounts.

Exhibit C

Description of Filing

Description of Filing

Cincinnati Bell Telephone Company LLC (CBT) is making this filing as its annual Lifeline Recovery Surcharge report in compliance with 4901:1-6-19(R), O.A.C.. CBT's April 7, 2011 Supplemental Filing in this docket established May 1 as the date for filing the annual report. Additionally, CBT is filing, pursuant to 4901:1-6-19(P)(1), O.A.C., to adjust its Lifeline Recovery Surcharge from $0.12 to $0.13, effective July 2, 2013, as explained below.

ANNUAL REPORT

CBT's historic and projected Lifeline service expenses, amounts recovered through the Lifeline Recovery Surcharge, and true-up calculation are detailed in the accompanying worksheets. The calculation of the Lifeline expenses follows the same methodology as described in CBT's January 29, 2013 filing in this docket for Lifeline enrollments beginning August 1, 2012. That is, the expense calculation includes only BLES customers who purchase Lifeline and thus receive the additional monthly Lifeline discount for BLES shown in CBT Local Service Tariff, PUCO No. 1, Section 4, 4th Revised Page 9. CBT continued to calculate the historic surcharge revenue from actual monthly billing and adjustments.<sup>1</sup> The net result is an under-recovery of $1,590 since inception of the Lifeline Recovery Surcharge in May 2011 through March 2013.

RATE ADJUSTMENT

The proposed increase to the Lifeline Recovery Surcharge results, at least in part, from an increase in the number of Lifeline subscribers since December 2012. The number of CBT Lifeline customers decreased significantly in December 2012 when CBT de-enrolled Lifeline subscribers who did not recertify their continued Lifeline eligibility through the annual Lifeline audit. (CBT decreased the Lifeline Recovery Surcharge accordingly, effective February 1, 2013. See January 29, 2013 filing in Case No. 11-1339-TP-ATA.) However, some de-enrolled customers subsequently re-enrolled in CBT Lifeline, resulting in an overall increase in CBT's Lifeline subscribership. Consequently, CBT's Lifeline service expenses are greater than projected in the January filing.

CBT's Lifeline Recovery surcharge has under recovered expenses by $1,590 since its inception in May 2011. Additionally, CBT projects that the Lifeline Recovery Surcharge revenue in April 2013 will under-recovery expenses equal to the under-recovery in March, 2013. As with previous true-up calculations, CBT calculated the ratio of the current monthly Lifeline expenses including the true-up adjustment, to current surcharge revenue and applied this ratio to the current surcharge ($0.12) to calculate the revised surcharge ($0.13). These calculations are shown in detail on the accompanying worksheets. This rate increase will be effective July 2, 2013 to allow CBT time to provide customers with advance notice of the increase, as described in Exhibit D.

<sup>1</sup> CBT bills the Lifeline Recovery Surcharge in advance to be consistent with access line billing. Because of the advance billing, February 2013 revenue includes bill credits to adjust for the Lifeline Recovery Surcharge rate reduction that was effective February 1, 2013.

Note 1: In addition to the federal $9.25 Lifeline discount, Lifeline customers with BLES receive a CBT funded Lifeline discount equal to the total price increase for BLES under previous alternative regulation rules (4901:1-4-11 O.A.C., effective August 7, 2006) which capped Lifeline prices for BLES at the prices in effect when the previous alternative regulation plan became effective. This discount varies by exchange depending on the number of years BLES price flexibility was effective and the BLES price increases implemented in the exchange. See Case No. 12-1701-TP-ATA and CBT Local Service Tariff, PUCO No. 1, Section 4, 4th Revised Page 9 for additional detail regarding the Lifeline discount for BLES.
