On July 31, 2013, Complainant, Ron Mosley, filed correspondence in this docket addressed to the PUCO, in which he indicated, among other things, "I am appealing all decessions (sic) by the PUCO against DP&L." This correspondence never states an intention to apply for rehearing, nor does not satisfy the requirements for rehearing pursuant to section 4903.10 of the Ohio Revised Code and section 4901-1-35 of the Ohio Administrative Code. Should this be viewed as such a request however, DP&L urges the Commission to reject it, as the correspondence does not set forth specifically the ground or grounds on which the applicant considers the order to be unreasonable or unlawful. Moreover, even if there was such statement, the dismissal of the Complaint was reasonable and lawful. The Complainant was afforded due process, and indeed was given ample opportunity over a nearly two year period of time for this proceeding to fully participate in two hearings, and present his case to sustain his burden of proof as the Complainant. As the July10, 2013 Opinion and Order stated: "The complainant has failed to carry the burden of proof that DP&L billed him incorrectly for service or that it improperly estimated his bills." There is nothing presented in the correspondence to alter that conclusion.

Respectfully submitted,
