MOTION OF THE APPLICANT,
THE DAYTON POWER AND LIGHT COMPANY,
TO EXTEND DEADLINE FOR FILING OBJECTIONS

Pursuant to Rules 4901-1-12 and 4901-1-13 of the Ohio Administrative Code, the Dayton Power and Light Company ("DP&L") moves the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio ("Commission") for an order extending the deadline for parties to file objections for an additional one week, to August 29, 2013.

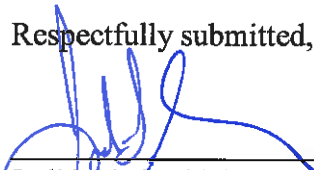

DP&L moved to modify the scheduling order on June 14, 2013 and by Attorney Examiner's Entry granting DP&L's motion that same day, the deadline for parties to file objections was set for July 18, 2013. DP&L further moved on July 17, 2013, and again on August 7, 2013 to modify the scheduling order to extend the deadline for filing objections, while keeping the hearing date as scheduled. Both motions were granted. DP&L respectfully moves again for an additional one week delay for filing objections, so that the deadline for Intervening Parties to file objections would now be set for August 29, 2013. Settlement discussions are continuing to yield positive results, and the parties are still making solid progress towards resolving many, if not all, issues in this case by way of settlement that would dispense with the need for a hearing, or at least limit the scope of the hearing. In light of these continuing discussions, good cause exists to extend the deadline for filing objections for one week. All other aspects of the schedule, including the deadlines for filing testimony and the hearing date, would remain unchanged.

In light of the fast-approaching current deadline for filing objections, DP&L also requests an expedited ruling in this matter pursuant to Ohio Adm. Code 4901-1-12(C). Commission Staff and all parties¹ have indicated they do not oppose this one week extension of the deadline, nor do they oppose an expedited ruling on this motion.

For the foregoing reasons, good cause exists to modify the procedural schedule in this case as set forth above in order to allow the parties to focus on continuing settlement discussions.

Respectfully submitted,
