ENTRY

The attorney examiner finds:

- (1) The Dayton Power and Light Company (DP&L) is a public utility as defined in Section 4905.02, Revised Code, and, as such, is subject to the jurisdiction of this Commission.
- (2) On March 30, 2012, DP&L filed an application for a standard service offer (SSO) pursuant to Section 4928.141, Revised Code. The application was for a market rate offer in accordance with Section 4928.142, Revised Code. On September 7, 2012, DP&L withdrew its application for a market rate offer. On October 5, 2012, DP&L filed an application for an electric security plan in accordance with Section 4928.143, Revised Code. Additionally, DP&L filed accompanying applications for approval of revised tariffs, for approval of certain accounting authority, for waiver of certain Commission rules, and to establish tariff riders. On December 12, 2012, DP&L amended its application for an electric security plan.

- (3) On September 4, 2013, the Commission issued its Opinion and Order in this case. On October 4, 2013, multiple parties filed applications for rehearing and memoranda in support. Subsequently, DP&L filed a motion and memorandum in support for an extension of time to file oppositions to the applications for rehearing with a request for expedited ruling. DP&L certifies that no party objects to the issuance of such a ruling. DP&L contends that an extension of time is appropriate because of the numerous and lengthy applications for rehearing filed in this case, and requests a 14-day extension of time for parties to memoranda contra to the applications for rehearing.
- (4) Pursuant to Rule 4901-1-12(C), O.A.C., if the moving party certifies that no party objects to the issuance of an expedited ruling, an immediate ruling may be issued. DP&L has certified that no party objects to the issuance of an expedited ruling. Further, pursuant to Rule 4901-1-13, O.A.C, extensions of time to file pleadings or other papers may be granted upon motion of any party for good cause shown. DP&L has demonstrated that numerous and lengthy applications for rehearing have been filed in this case, which the attorney examiner finds is good cause for an extension of time to file memoranda contra the applications for rehearing. Accordingly, the attorney examiner finds that DP&L's motion to extend the deadline for filing memoranda contra to the applications for rehearing should be granted. Accordingly, memoranda contra to the applications for rehearing should be filed in this case by October 31, 2013.

It is, therefore,

ORDERED, That DP&L's motion for an extension of time to file memoranda contra the applications for rehearing is granted in accordance with finding (4). It is, further,

ORDERED, That a copy of this entry be served upon each party of record.
