ENTRY

The attorney examiner finds:

- (1) On July 3, 2014, a complaint was filed against FirstEnergy Solutions Corp. (FES) by Ohio Schools Council, Ohio School Boards Association, Ohio Association of School Business Officials, and Buckeye Association of School Administrators, dba Power4Schools (collectively, Power4Schools). In its complaint, Power4Schools alleges that actions by FES violated R.C. 4928.10, violated Ohio Adm.Code 4901:1-21-02(E), 4901:1-21-03(A)(1)-(3), 4901:1-21-11(A), 4901:1-21-12(A)(7)(a), 4901:1-21-12(A)(7)(b), and were unjust, unreasonable, and unlawful pursuant to R.C. 4905.26.
- (2) Thereafter, on July 17, 2014, a collective motion to intervene was filed by The Timken Company, Marathon Petroleum Company, Wausau Paper Towel and Tissue LLC, ASHTA Chemicals Inc., Columbus Castings, The Lincoln Electric Company, Delphi Corporation, and Landmark Plastic Corporation (collectively, Industrial Customers). Simultaneously, the Industrial Customers filed a motion for interim and preliminary orders.
- (3) On July 28, 2014, a joint motion was filed by FES and the Industrial Customers requesting a three-day extension of time for FES to respond to the Industrial Customers' motion to intervene and motion for interim and preliminary orders. In support, the joint movants explain that the deadline for FES to file a response to the motions is August 1, 2014, while the deadline for FES to file its answer to the complaint is August 4, 2014. The joint movants assert that, for purposes of efficiency and avoiding duplicative filings, the response date for the July 17, 2014 motions should be extended to August 4, 2014, and any replies to the response to the motions should be due August 11, 2014.

- (4) The attorney examiner finds that the joint movants' request is reasonable and should be granted.

It is, therefore,

ORDERED, That the deadline for FES' response to the Industrial Customers' motion to intervene and motion for interim and preliminary orders shall be extended to August 4, 2014, and any replies to FES' response shall be due August 11, 2014. It is, further,

ORDERED, That a copy of this Entry be served upon each party of record.
