Public Utilities Commission of Ohio

Attention Case No. 14-0841-EL-SSO

180 E. Broad St.

Columbus, OH 43215

October 9, 2014

Dear Commissioners:

I am writing regarding Duke Energy's efforts to task Ohio consumers with the costs of a bailout for their outdated coal power plants. Ohio consumers deserve clean energy. I want to reduce air pollution and am a supporter of clean energy. Duke Energy has a responsibility to Ohio consumers to make appropriate decisions. Duke Energy makes decisions driven by shareholder profit and then passes on the costs of their poor decisions to the citizens of Ohio. Ohio needs renewable energy standards and Duke Energy needs to comply and stop offloading both their pollution and their costs.

Sincerely,

Raymond Owens
