Commissioner Thomas Johnson

Dear Commissioner Johnson,

I'm writing today to ask you to say no to FirstEnergy's request for the PUCO to authorize substantial, customer-funded subsidies to bail out its uneconomic and dirty power plants.

More and more parties -- such as the Ohio Manufacturers Association, Ohio Consumers' Counsel, and AARP -- are now opposing the bailout, but the utility giant and its expensive lawyers and lobbyists are pressuring Ohio regulators in these final days before a decision.

Please safeguard market competition and reject FirstEnergy's proposal, so that a utility can no longer cross-subsidize or favor its affiliate companies in order to block competition. Approving the deal would send a clear message to Ohio's businesses, entrepreneurs, investors, and residents: We favor reigning power players and political clout over innovation and competition. Utility profits should not be placed ahead of Ohioans' best interests, and especially not at their personal expense.

If you believe Ohio should have electricity that is clean, reliable, and affordable, please reject FirstEnergy's request.

Thank you,

Mr. paul cramer

Commissioner Thomas Johnson

Dear Commissioner Johnson,

I'm writing today to ask you to say no to FirstEnergy's request for the PUCO to authorize substantial, customer-funded subsidies to bail out its uneconomic and dirty power plants.

More and more parties -- such as the Ohio Manufacturers Association, Ohio Consumers' Counsel, and AARP -- are now opposing the bailout, but the utility giant and its expensive lawyers and lobbyists are pressuring Ohio regulators in these final days before a decision.

Please safeguard market competition and reject FirstEnergy's proposal, so that a utility can no longer cross-subsidize or favor its affiliate companies in order to block competition. Approving the deal would send a clear message to Ohio's businesses, entrepreneurs, investors, and residents: We favor reigning power players and political clout over innovation and competition. Utility profits should not be placed ahead of Ohioans' best interests, and especially not at their personal expense.

If you believe Ohio should have electricity that is clean, reliable, and affordable, please reject FirstEnergy's request.

Thank you,

I'm writing today to ask you to say no to FirstEnergy's request for the PUCO to authorize substantial, customer-funded subsidies to bail out its uneconomic and dirty power plants.

More and more parties -- such as the Ohio Manufacturers Association, Ohio Consumers' Counsel, and AARP -- are now opposing the bailout, but the utility giant and its expensive lawyers and lobbyists are pressuring Ohio regulators in these final days before a decision.

Please safeguard market competition and reject FirstEnergy's proposal, so that a utility can no longer cross-subsidize or favor its affiliate companies in order to block competition. Approving the deal would send a clear message to Ohio's businesses, entrepreneurs, investors, and residents: We favor reigning power players and political clout over innovation and competition. Utility profits should not be placed ahead of Ohioans' best interests, and especially not at their personal expense.

If you believe Ohio should have electricity that is clean, reliable, and affordable, please reject FirstEnergy's request.

Commissioner Thomas Johnson

Dear Commissioner Johnson,

The oil companies make plenty of money - they have no right to demand our taxes just so their profits increase. I'm writing today to ask you to say no to FirstEnergy's request for the PUCO to authorize substantial, customer-funded subsidies to bail out its uneconomic and dirty power plants.

More and more parties -- such as the Ohio Manufacturers Association, Ohio Consumers' Counsel, and AARP -- are now opposing the bailout, but the utility giant and its expensive lawyers and lobbyists are pressuring Ohio regulators in these final days before a decision.

Please safeguard market competition and reject FirstEnergy's proposal, so that a utility can no longer cross-subsidize or favor its affiliate companies in order to block competition. Approving the deal would send a clear message to Ohio's businesses, entrepreneurs, investors, and residents: We favor reigning power players and political clout over innovation and competition. Utility profits should not be placed ahead of Ohioans' best interests, and especially not at their personal expense.

If you believe Ohio should have electricity that is clean, reliable, and affordable, please reject FirstEnergy's request.

Thank you,

Dear Commissioner Johnson,

I'm writing today to ask you to say no to FirstEnergy's request for the PUCO to authorize substantial, customer-funded subsidies to bail out its uneconomic and dirty power plants.

More and more parties -- such as the Ohio Manufacturers Association, Ohio Consumers' Counsel, and AARP -- are now opposing the bailout, but the utility giant and its expensive lawyers and lobbyists are pressuring Ohio regulators in these final days before a decision.

Please safeguard market competition and reject FirstEnergy's proposal, so that a utility can no longer cross-subsidize or favor its affiliate companies in order to block competition. Approving the deal would send a clear message to Ohio's businesses, entrepreneurs, investors, and residents: We favor reigning power players and political clout over innovation and competition. Utility profits should not be placed ahead of Ohioans' best interests, and especially not at their personal expense.

If you believe Ohio should have electricity that is clean, reliable, and affordable, please reject FirstEnergy's request.

Thank you,

Dear Commissioner Johnson,

I urge you to reject FirstEnergy's request to PUCO to approve their misguided customer-subsidized bail out plan.

FirstEnergy's army of lobbyists and lawyers are excessively pressuring Ohio regulators to make a rushed and bad decision. More groups representing large numbers of Ohio residents -- the Ohio Consumers' Counsel, AARP, and the Ohio Manufacturers Association -- are standing up and speaking out to oppose this corporate subsidy bailout.

Let the utility market work as it should by holding FirstEnergy accountable for its poor planning and decision-making. Utilities should not be able to cross-subsidize or favor its affiliate companies in order to block competition. If you uphold FirstEnergy's request, you set a tragic precedent that acquiesces to corporate pressure and political clout over business responsibility and fair market competition.

Please fulfill your role in protecting Ohio citizens' interests against corporate utility power and profits. Let FirstEnergy pay their own way for their own shortsighted mistakes.

Please do the right thing for Ohio residents and reject FirstEnergy's bail out request.

I'm writing today to ask you to say no to FirstEnergy's request for the PUCO to authorize substantial, customer-funded subsidies to bail out its uneconomic and dirty power plants.

More and more parties -- such as the Ohio Manufacturers Association, Ohio Consumers' Counsel, and AARP -- are now opposing the bailout, but the utility giant and its expensive lawyers and lobbyists are pressuring Ohio regulators in these final days before a decision.

Please safeguard market competition and reject FirstEnergy's proposal, so that a utility can no longer cross-subsidize or favor its affiliate companies in order to block competition. Approving the deal would send a clear message to Ohio's businesses, entrepreneurs, investors, and residents: We favor reigning power players and political clout over innovation and competition. Utility profits should not be placed ahead of Ohioans' best interests, and especially not at their personal expense.

If you believe Ohio should have electricity that is clean, reliable, and affordable, please reject FirstEnergy's request.

Thank you,
