Sir:

I feel as if the first energy people are making enough money now, what is it with the electric companys, is their contract up this year.

I on a fixed income now and try to keep my electric bill around $55.00$ a month.

If they get there increase my bill will go well above that amount.

We the little people, the less fortunated. We need our income increased so we can live a better life, and trying to take our little bit of food out of our mouth.

We don't have it like you do. You should be paying us for using your electricity.

Besides if every employed gave back 1.00$ out of there weekly pay check they would not need an increase that they want.

Yours truly
