COMMENT DESCRIPTION:

i oppose the prices hikes (case # 14-1297-EL-SSO, 14-1693, 14-1694) that the company is planning to do. they are charging enough already. how much of a profit is enough? I'm on social security and can barely pay what they charge now.

COMMENT DESCRIPTION:

I'm encouraging you to support consumers rather than the lobbyists and the big companies and FIGHT THE HIKE. I think this request by the energy companies is outrageous. From the beginning of time other companies have not received assistance from the taxpayers or the customers when changes occurred, did the wagon makers get a break when the automobile was gaining popularity and those in the wagon making industry did not make appropriate changes when they saw the change coming. AEP's top management make a whole lot of money, perhaps they should look at this to make adjustments to pay for costs in order to make appropriate changes as the technology and demands have changed. The current request sounds similar to TARP. I encourage you to support consumers for a change.

COMMENT DESCRIPTION:

To Whom it May Concern: I am writing to express my opposition to the proposed settlements with First Energy and with AEP. These settlements amount to unnecessary and wasteful corporate welfare to these two electricity suppliers in Ohio. Rather than continue to financially support the production of energy by the combustion of fossil fuels such as coal, I recommend that the PUCO look for ways to directly incentivize these companies invest in lower polluting and clean, renewable power generation. Thank you, Ian MacGregor

COMMENT DESCRIPTION:

Rate increases especially regarding the electric grid should be denied flatly, unless the utility is being totally mismanaged all of theses maintenance and upgrades should have already been in there budget. If this has been a case of mismanagement, then that negligent person (s) should be made to make up for their errors out of there incomes. Trying to make a living theses days is hard enough without paying for misjudgements,just like the federal government stealing social security money and increasing it on the taxpayer because they did not want to put it back.people are tired of politicians and company leaders lining their pockets at our expenses,hense, here comes Donald trump. To be honest I would vote for any non politician who had some business savvy. It's time for the crooks to go and our country to be ran like the business it is. AND THE SAME WITH ALL UTILITIES. NO NEW RATE INCREASES!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
