COMMENT DESCRIPTION:

I request that Duke Energy project that is before the Ohio power sitting board avoid, no matter what the cost, from building the extension natural gas line through densely populated areas of Blue Ash. One such proposal is very close to Blue Ash residents on Bluewing Terrace. The recent breach and explosion in Pennsylvania of a gas transmission line is reason enough to have the highest regards for safety of those nearest the proposed pipeline. As an engineer with a career in high energy system, the proposed system is definitely a very high energy project with potential
