COMMENTS: To whom it may concern,

As a former resident of Amberley village, Ohio I am horrified by the prospect of installing the proposed Central Corridor Extension Gas Pipeline through the neighborhood. Although I currently live in Columbus, Ohio I still have many friends and family in the area. Not only is Amberley a population-dense area, but the proposed project would run right next to several synagogues and the Jewish Community Center of Cincinnati. Given that the Jewish population is frequently targeted by terrorists worldwide this poses an unacceptable risk. Nothing short of immediately removing this proposed route is acceptable. This proposal shows a lack of concern for safety and resident concerns. Please vote to disallow this project. Whatever the benefit of installing the pipeline, it cannot be worth the potential risk to peoples' safety and security.

Respectfully,
Jonathan Lipps
