COMMENTS: I sincerely hope that you will not consider approving any of the three proposed pipeline routes through a densely populated area in north central Cincinnati. Any of these routes runs past a hospital, schools, a major interstate, and the largest shopping area in the Tristate. The number of people impacted cannot be counted. On a more personal note, given my home's location, I would not have to be evacuated--I would have to be carried out in a body bag should anything happen! Please work to find a route in a more rural area.
