COMPLAINT DESCRIPTION:

I am in shock that that Duke Energy is making a decision to put the lives of thousands upon thousands of Cincinnati residents in danger to build a pipeline. At first, I didn't think it was true, but I'm an active member of my community and love where I live. I have a child whose school is within the blast zone. How, as a parent, can I sleep at night knowing that my family is in danger? Moreover how, as a respected and active company in the community, can you sleep well knowing this same thing? This is disheartening. Every aspect of this project is wrong. Who's
