COMPLAINT DESCRIPTION:

To whomever can help us stop Duke Energy from installing a high pressure gas line in our community. First of all, our community of Duke Energy customers already have a class action judgment against Duke for stealing from us. So they think they can steal from us then decide to lower the values of our homes? This is insane. We have no benefits from this high pressure, dangerous pipeline. Duke is a publicly traded company. It might be more understandable if it were a government project that helps out our community or our country. Duke is installing this pipe to increase their own profits at our losses and inconveniences. There are plenty of low populated areas outside of our area that would make more sense to install it, if needed. Lower population, less damage to developed neighborhoods and safer for all. One simple question, and please respond to this. Would you allow Duke to do this in your neighborhood? If not, why would you allow them to install it in ours? Thank you and please consider mine and our entire communities efforts to keep this pipeline out of our neighborhoods. Greg Gall
